GROUND TACTICS – SURVIVING KNIFE ATTACKS - ICP

This Ground Survival Tactics program is a series of real world based programs designed to educate, train and prepare you in Ground Survival Tactics that are field tested and proven for surviving real world attacks. This course is designed to enhance your personal development in not only the physical response but in the mental commitment, emotional trauma and the legalities that follow these violent and dangerous attacks. Due to the many diverse cultures living in the United States knives are becoming more a part of our culture and society and the possibility exists that if you are in a ground attack the person trying to kill you will have a knife. Being unable to identify, disarm and control not only the attacker but the weapon itself is vital to not only winning but your life! This program was developed and is conducted by US Fighting Systems. Student will be issued a certificate of completion for Ground Survival Tactics – Knife Disarming.
